Venus Steel Range

$23.50

$2.50 Cash

$1.00 Weekly

We have told you on previous occasions just how this range is made, also about its baking qualities as well—we say that you cannot buy a range as well made as this anywhere for less than $30.00.

8.3x10.6 Hartford, Harvard Brussels Rugs

The colors are beautiful tan and brown in the Kermansha patterns, the leading Oriental pattern. We were able to secure 20 bales of these rugs, but even this number will be insufficient to take care of the demand that will be created for them, and we advise early selection.

GRACE DARMOND--AT EMPIRE

Women Sleuths Face Court. and Neya Friedlander of the Burns Detective Agency, who were arrested, Clinton, Ill., Oct. 31.—Daley R. Knox

Monday night on a warrant issued by State's Attorney L. O. Williams, were given a preliminary hearing yesterday. Each was held under $1,000 bond on a charge of conspiracy. The women were in the employ of Alexander Campbell, charged with a statutory offense against a domestic. The detectives incriminated several Clinton men in efforts to gain Campbell's acquittal.

EXCURSION SUNDAY TO BE LAST OF SEASON

The last trip of the season for the steamer Helen Blair will be made Sunday afternoon leaving the dock at this city at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The excursion will proceed through the Moline lock up to Hampton and back down over the rapids, giving a fine view of Bettendorf and the Moline locks. The scenery along the river at this time of the year being unusually beautiful, a large number of people no doubt will avail themselves of the opportunity of taking the trip. The boat will return at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Quickly Relieved

Morton L. Hill of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by Otto Grotjan, 1501 Second avenue, Rock Island, and Gust Schlegel & Son, 230 Second street, Davenport.—(Adv.)

AT THE EMPIRE.

There is probably not another act exactly like "The Queen of Sahara" on the entire circuit of which the Empire is a part. There is so much of variety in the musical-spectacular-comedy that certain parts of it are apt to strike almost any theatregoer favorably. It is hard to describe and resembles more than anything else an old type musical comedy in vogue about ten years ago. There is a dash of magic, much mystery, a little good singing and a lot of fairly good comedy. The setting is oriental and is novel to a striking degree, showing a scene on the desert. Sandberg and Lee are a pair of comical boys with some good back talk and a funny song or two that went good last night. Joe Bannister and Grace Darmond in "The Wolf" present a little comedy drama full of sentiment. Kathleen Rooney appeared in character songs and wore four changes of costume. Her final song with special Irish cottage setting was a pretty thing and earned a hearty round of applause that came from an appreciative audience. Holden and McDonald do athletic stunts, winding up with a daring hand to hand leap from a high pedestal. It is quite a sight and caused more than one gasp. Photoplays close the bill as usual.

FAMILY, MOLINE.
Hugh Fay, assisted by Elsie Mynn, is grabbing the bulge in the laugh jackpot as The Family theatre, Moline, the last portion of the week. Hugh is a long, lean, lanky, cadaverous looking individual, whose shape is reminiscent of the graceful lines attributed to the famous Ichabod Crane. Hugh is really funny. His eccentric dancing is novel and clever. Miss Mynn sings pleasingly and dances gracefully. The team has a line of patter talk which had the audience howling last night. The Three Loretas, a comedy musical trio, are above the average. A comedy dancel, who affects a dashing gown of the slit variety, a black face man, and a straight, make up the cast. A lot of good comedy stuff is inserted between musical and vocal numbers. The act went big. Gertrude Dean Forbes & Co. present a comedy playlet entitled "The Wild Rose" which proved decidedly entertaining. There are three in the cast. Chet Wilson, a clever cartoonist, and the yodling couple, Barrett & Bayne, round out the bill.
